FOUR SEASONS RESORT BALI AT JIMBARAN BAY

Timeless Balinese Village

Immerse in authentic Balinese culture at Four Seasons Jimbaran Bay: an all-villa beach retreat alive with tradition and innovation. Inspired by a village layout, this iconic resort is arranged into seven small 'villages' each headed by a customary Village Chief delivering genuine hospitality. Soak up the sanctuary of your contemporary pool villa – modelled on a Balinese home and richly decorated with artworks, textiles and hand-crafted furniture. Wander and daydream through 14 hectares of tropical gardens cascading down to the ocean and three-mile Jimbaran Beach. Dive into the Bay with exclusive water activities, ride the waves with TropicSurf, and connect to the vibrant pulse of Bali's historic fishing community. Discover the island's cultural heritage through on-site artist workshops and take a tour of the resort's historic temple with high priest Ajik Ngurah. Hone expert skills with Chef Kris at Jala Cooking Academy and embrace the beach lifestyle and Modern Asian cuisine of chic Sundara. Enjoy the freshest international cuisine with live action cooking at the new Taman Wantilan restaurant, or venture out for Jimbaran's flourishing dining scene or Seminyak's nightlife.

Did You Know:

- The resort was carved from rock. 70% of limestone used for villa walls, lanes and landscaping was quarried on-site.
- We have 200 species of plants, 3 hectares of vegetable gardens and over 1,500 handcarved stone statues.
- There are over 300 shrines including one that dates to 15th century.
- The Historical Temple in the heart of the resort has a shrine dating back to 17th century – preserved as part of Temple's construction.

Soak up the chic vibe of Sundara, Bali's most sophisticated beach-club and dining destination, where the buzz of Jimbaran Beach, live music on the terrace, Modern Asian cuisine, Bali's Longest Sunday Brunch, and beach-front daybeds beckon you to stay all day. Named after the Sanskrit word for 'beautiful', Sundara describes the sparkling views from the al fresco terrace, 57-metre infinity pool (Bali's longest beach-front pool) and upstairs Mezzanine balcony.

DESTINATION-INSPIRED EXPERIENCES

Cultural Discoveries: Jimbaran High Priest Aji Ngurah offers guests a deeper understanding of the uniquely Balinese culture through on-site resort temple ceremonies, tours, meditation and blessings. Ganesha Cultural Centre offers workshops with master artists in woodcarving, painting, weaving, dancing and more.

Jala Cooking Academy: Balinese chef Kristya Yudha shares his passion for authentic flavours and ancient recipes at the state-of-the-art standalone cooking school. Also serves a la carte Balinese dinner nightly.

Taman Wantilan: Specialty chefs take centre stage preparing an extensive array of Asian and Western cuisine at 9 live action cooking stations. Every sense is aroused and every craving satisfied with the Indian station's tandoor and curries, sizzling teppanyaki, laksa and noodles, seafood-on-ice and sashimi bar, salad shaker bar, carvery and homemade pasta station, and the temperature-controlled Patisserie room.

TropicSurf guide Blake McKinnon knows Bali's breaks inside-out. He offers surf lessons right in front of the resort, boat tours to get the best waves while avoiding the crowds, and even heli-surfing for those who dare!

Wellness: Inspired by the Balinese philosophy, Sekala Niskala (the seen to the unseen), The Healing Village Spa draws on local traditions to nourish and heal the physical body. The ocean-front Nirvana Shanti Bale is the centre of a dynamic yoga and meditation program.

WEDDINGS AND EVENTS

With a variety of private venues spread across 14 hectares of gardens, the resort is ideal for small executive retreats, high-end incentive events and exclusive occasions for groups of up to 240. Dream destination wedding venues include Bali's Longest Water Wedding Aisle (57 metres) and the ocean-edge Gili Jimbaran island.
