It Takes a Village

In 2017, with the amazing support of the owners of Mayakoba, guests of Rosewood Mayakoba and the Scott and Escalada families, we built a new non-profit school in an underprivileged area of Playa del Carmen called K'iin Beh. Daniel Scott, our Managing Director, serves as the President of Fundacion K'iin Beh - where our mission is to provide over 300 primary and secondary students the opportunity to receive a high quality bilingual education and learn proper values to be the next leaders of our community.

If you would like to support our local non-profit school, K'iin Beh or would like more information please contact us at fundacionkiinbeh@kiinbeh.org or visit kiinbeh.org

Eco-friendly Initiatives

Rosewood Mayakoba is a leader in sustainable tourism, implementing incredibly extensive, eco-friendly conservation practices property wide. We abide by the highest of eco-standards, offering indulgence with awareness, and have been awarded the Rainforest Alliance Certification. From energy and water conservation to responsible, sustainable culinary practices, Rosewood Mayakoba is passionate about green hospitality. It's part of our DNA.

We are proud of our environmentally responsible culinary practices in the kitchen and beyond as a certified Seafood Watch partner for our sustainable seafood purchasing practices. Chef Juan Pablo Loza is passionate about clean culinary practices, focuses on healthy, whole foods of high quality and taste, and was responsible for debuting the resort's organic garden, featuring an abundance of fruits, vegetables, and herbs, served to guests in each of our restaurants and bars.

The resort also has a multi-faceted "Green Operations" program for trash, water and energy practices far surpassing the basics of recycling - from our elimination of Styrofoam and complete reduction of single use plastic. We utilize water filters across the resort - providing guests with recycled glass bottles in place of plastic - and our bathroom amenities are provided to our guests in large, refillable vessels. All of our water used at Rosewood Mayakoba is obtained from a natural well and is then filtered through a practice called inverse osmosis.

Tortuga Cocktail

Available throughout the year, guests at Rosewood Mayakoba can toast to sea turtle conservation with the Akumal Mezcalita Cocktail offered across the property's captivating dining venues including Casa del Lago, Punta Bonita, Agave Azul, and on the beach. Mixed with gin, Martini Bianco, lemongrass, raspberry syrup and lemon, 20% of the proceeds benefit the work of Centro Ecológico Akumal, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to sustainability-related issues including the conservation of nesting sea turtles and hatchlings in Quintana Roo.

Endless Adventure Awaits at Mayakoba

Adventures at Mayakoba take you from the water's edge to the leafy mangroves, with outdoor experiences for all ages and abilities. Whether exploring the coral reef offshore, biking miles of nature trails or immersing yourself in Mayan culture, Mayakoba offers an endless array of unique experiences, inspired by the pristine surroundings.

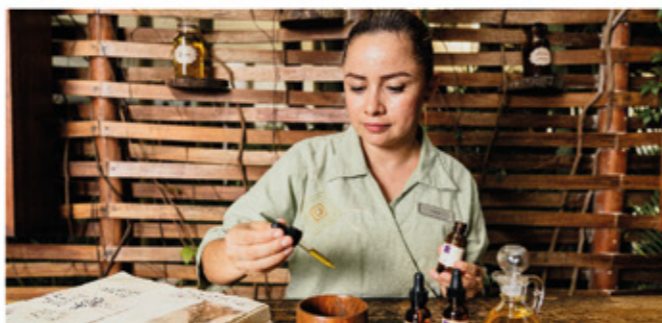

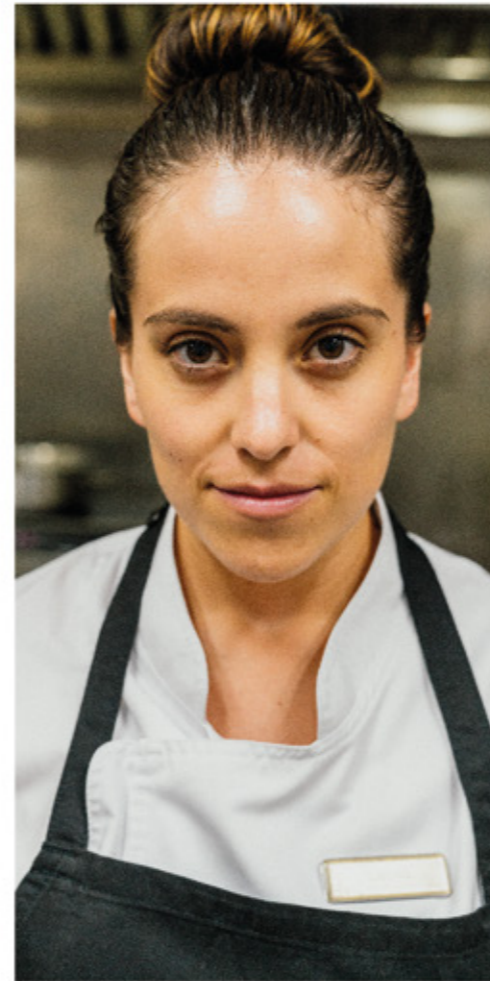

Eco-Tours

Mayakoba is designed to blend and preserve the stunning landscape, and endemic flora and fauna. On daily eco-tours, guests have the opportunity observe the eco-destination's abundant wildlife and learn about protection and rehabilitation efforts for the sea turtles that make their home in the region. The resort offers excursions for children in the morning, followed by a tour for adults and families.

Cenote El Burródromo

A stunning geological feature common the Riviera Maya and formed millions of years ago, Cenote El Burródromo is a natural cave filled with crystal clear water. Guests can embark on an adventure by swimming in one of the large cenotes located within destination grounds, offering a chance to learn about the fascinating history of the ancient Mayan culture.
