Welcome to JOALI BEING, our Island of Wellbeing.
We are delighted to have you with us for the festive season!

This year, our holiday calendar sparkles with the mystery and wonder of the underwater world. Myth and magic collide with fable and fantasy, revealing new perspectives and joyful surprises.

Awaken and revitalise your life force with our thoughtfully curated activities and dazzling celebrations, unfolding across the island and its surrounding waters. From dawn to dusk, discover a repertoire of experiences to ignite and uplift your senses.

The vibrancy of marine life takes centre stage: at every turn, we invite you to rejoice in the abundance of the ocean. Embrace the vital energies all around you to nurture a deeper, more meaningful connection with nature.

Join our Sunset Gathering Ceremony — an opportunity for the JOALI BEING community to come together in pause and reflection. As night casts her spell over the island, share in the festivities with lively dinners and soulful celebrations under the stars.

Here is to the holiday spirit. To the mystery and magic of nature. To new journeys and enriching explorations. And most of all, to the Joy of Weightlessness - that remarkable sense of freedom, lightness and wonder at the heart of JOALI BEING.

MASTER PRACTITIONERS

Chef Bettina Campolucci Bordi

Plant-Based Chef

“We should let our veggies do the talking. The best plant food is fuss-free, simple and speaks for itself.”

Based in the UK, Chef Bettina is on a mission to elevate accessible plant-based eating habits around the globe. Using straightforward cooking principles and plenty of seasonal produce, she creates food that simply makes people feel good — while also showcasing the limitless possibilities of plant-based cuisine. Reflecting a passion for sustainability, her recipes make generous use of local ingredients and zero-waste techniques.

Chef Bettina shares her wisdom and experience through her award-winning cookbooks, yoga and mindfulness retreats, cooking workshops, and food writing. She also runs her own Retreat Chef Academy for aspiring plant-based chefs.

Sandro Thiara Mota

Human Enhancement Coach

“Our most precious and underutilised resource is breath — a simple, ever-present and sacred tool.”

Sandro is a professional athlete, Mr Universe finalist, and leading human enhancement coach with over two decades of helping clients elevate their lives through The Mota Method, a combination of restorative breathwork, WimHof techniques and high-performance fitness training. He has guided elite athletes, high-level executives, and guests of all ages and backgrounds seeking to work through traumas or difficulties.

Dr. Tara Swart

Neuroscientist

“Most of the things we want from life – health, happiness, wealth, love – are governed by our ability to think, feel and act. In other words, by our brain.”

Dr. Tara is a globally renowned neuroscientist, Oxford University trained medical doctor, and senior lecturer at MIT Sloan. She is also a highly sought-after executive advisor, working with a select group of leaders and businesses to elevate their success.

The bestselling author of books like The Source, Dr. Tara draws on the latest breakthroughs in brain science – including neuroplasticity and gut-brain axis – to help guests strengthen mental resilience, achieve peak brain performance, and re-engage with their lives more meaningfully.

Dr. Rachel Woo

“With a little help, the body can rebalance and restore itself.”

An experienced TCM practitioner, Dr. Rachel specialises in acupuncture, cupping, herbal medicine and nutrition. Blending ancient wisdom with advanced science, her integrated therapeutic approach offers an alternative pathway to your wellbeing goals – from preventing illness and strengthening immunity, to relieving pain and slowing disease progression.

Dr. Rachel’s sound knowledge of traditional natural therapies was honed over a decade of working in holistic wellness clinics, including a supervisory clinical role at the Sydney Institute of Traditional Chinese Medicine. She holds a master’s degree in Brain & Mind Sciences.

Andrea Stuto

"Fitness is a state of mind."

Based in Italy, Andrea is a highly accomplished Technogym Master Trainer and Skillathletic Coach. Designed around efficiency and technique, Skillathletic is an advanced method for athletic performance training.

With a strong background as a former professional beach tennis athlete and head coach at the BTS Beach Tennis School, Andrea brings a world of experience to fitness education. He also holds a master's degree in Sports Science and Techniques. Under Andrea's careful guidance, you can develop multiple components of physical fitness to enhance your overall performance.

Javier De Prado Craniosacral And Watsu Practitioner

"Let your gentle spirit be your guide and transform you from within."

Having travelled extensively and studied under therapeutic masters across diverse cultures, Javier has developed a deep and critical understanding of massage techniques. Effectively merging teachings from western and eastern traditions, he has created a new form of therapy - the Aqua Cranio, an effective combination of Craniosacral and Watsu techniques.

A master of Osteothai, visceral manipulation and Thai healing, Javier believes that if we let ourselves to be open to change, if we allow our spirit to accept the possibility of betterment, that we can indeed all transform. He supports guests through true transformation, a process that occurs from within and leads to a more comprehensive state of wellbeing.

Dr. Dhanraj G. Shetty

Wellbeing & Ayurveda Consultant Yoga Practitioner

“Simplify to amplify.”

A specialist in Ayurveda and yogic science, Dr. Dhanraj Shetty’s approach is anchored in the belief that the human body has an innate ability to heal and thrive – if given the appropriate environment. Applying ancient knowledge to solve modern lifestyle challenges, he conducts in-depth diagnostics to design personalised treatment plans for our guests.

Decades of clinical and retreat experience have also shaped Dr. Dhanraj into an exceptional spiritual guide and “mind trainer”, supporting wellbeing seekers in their quest to remove mental blockages and optimise energy flow. Along with a degree in Ayurveda Medicine and Masters in Yogic Science, he holds a post graduate certificate in Panchakarma, a specialty of Ayurveda.

Marina Kurban

Herbologist

“The simplest ingredients can be transformed into exceptional blends and infusions.”

Motivated by her deep belief in plant-based healing, Marina made the transition from conventional pharmaceuticals to herbology. Taking an integrative and personalised approach to health, she finds great pleasure in being part of each guest’s unique wellbeing journey.

With a focus on organic and local products, including herbs such as sage, lavender, lemongrass, geranium and coriander, Marina crafts an array of custom essential oils, medicinal balms and natural cosmetics. Along with a degree in chemistry, she has studied medicinal and aromatic plants at Uskudar University and holds a Level 1 certification in aromatherapy from HerbaFarm Academy in Turkey.
